

The airwaves belong to the American people...not the corporations.
Keep the ownership rules as they are. No media consolidation!

I am distressed that the FCC is organized and operated the way it is -- with decisions being made with merely a majority rule by members appointed by partisan political means. This is how the Civil Service Commission was run at the beginning of the last century until Theodore Roosevelt instituted changes to make the body non-partisan.

Robert McLaughlin